WHISKY MAYBE TAINTED WITH LEAD – NO ONE CARES!!!!

As the weather threatened to descent on the little town of Chabot the citizens were preparing for the worst. Flooding could threaten the breweries and the numerous stills around the town. If the stills were destroyed the lively hood of the entire town would be in jeopardy, there would be anarchy, the saloons would close, horses would refuse to be ridden, women would demand the right to vote – it would be anarchy.

As the town prepared for the worst by hording the available whisky, tequila, and beer the town council was worried that unsavory gunfighters might ride into town and take advantage of the situation and attempt to rob the Bruno Billy Savings and Loan.

With the Marshal and deputies out of town at a law enforcement seminar in a small town called Las Vegas the town hired some local gunfighters to guard the town. They called on the famous gunfighter from up North, Sand Dab Sam who brought with him his son Kid Rosa, and asked local gunfighter Cyrus Sidewinder to help.

As the sun tried to break through the overcast three strangers rode into town. They looked menacing on their black steeds and armed to the teeth with a pair of .45's, a Winchester lever gun and a 12 gauge Winchester pump shotguns. In the lead was Salt Pork Steve flanked by Dice Splinter (a really badman from the South), and Rough 'N' Ready Rob.

They slowly rode down Main Street and passed Saloon row and headed directly to the Savings & Loan. The three heroic defenders of the town stood stoically in front of the Savings & Loan standing ready with shotguns ready to blast any interlopers. The three outsiders dismounted and tied their horses in front of the Savings & Loan, and faced off with the three standing guard.

The six gunfighters faced each other knowing one false move could end up with all of gunfighters being riddled with lead. The eyes of the gunfighters didn't reveal any emotion, not moving but taking in all of the surroundings. After what seemed like an eternity Cyrus broke the silence asking Dice if they were going to make a move. Dice pondered the question, looking at his partners and replied, "Nope, you guys hungry?"

Cyrus nodded, and the six gunfighters retreated to Annie's Diner and Gambling Emporium. The town breathed a sigh of relieve and the storm missed the town and only a light sprinkle fell on the town.

Tops for the start of the New Year was Sand Dab Sam, CLEANING the match and kicking ass. He was followed by Salt Pork Steve, Crus Sidewinder, Dice Splinter, and Kid Rosa.

READY & ABLE ANNIE GUNS DOWN BOISTEROUS SALOON PATRONS!!

Stage One

The famous dancer, and singer, Ready & Able Annie was performing for one night at Bruno Billy's Pleasure Palace & Card Room. How this saloon got such a classy act is a mystery to this reporter but that is a story for another day. There was standing room only as a diverse crowd awaited Annie's appearance. Unfortunately among the crowd were the unsavory types that usually associated themselves with Billy's establishment.

As the curtain was lifted to reveal the great Annie some of the patrons could not resist pulling out their side-arms and discharging them into the air.

This greatly upset Mrs. Annie but in response she pulled out her own sixgun and thus began a very entertaining exchange of gunfire, with Annie "cleaning house" as it were. Well it could happen. Allie took 8th overall. First was Cyrus Sidewinder, followed by Kid Rosa and Sand Dab.

KID ROSA CLEANS HOUSE!

Stage two

While attempting to have a nice quiet poker game the Kid noticed that Train Wreck and Jasper, were winning a lion's share of the pots (usually only the big ones). After two hours of losing hand after hand, the Kid finally figured out the pair were dealing seconds, and working the table.

Crying foul the Kid overturned the table and began blasting away with sixguns, and shotgun. Under cover of smoke, both Train Wreck and Jasper unharmed, vowing never to return to the Kid's table. After the smoke cleared the Kid left for the night not being able to find anybody to play poker with.

Sand Dab was first followed by Salt Pork Steve, Rowdy Yates, Kid Rosa, and Jackknife.

Dice was 5th and 1st respectively, followed by Sand Dab and Rough N Ready Rob.

JASPER CLEANS UP RED LIGHT DISTRICT???

Stage five

Upon being elected to the town City Council and put in charge of "cleaning" up the town. Jasper swore to uphold the laws of the land and make the town of Chabot safe for its citizens (well that is what he said). This did not sit well with the brothel owners who ran the South section of town, on the other side of the tracks, which Jasper was a regular. With this threat to their business a plan was set in motion to lure Jasper into the district and gun him down.

What they did not count on is Jasper's sharp mind and quick gun. As he approached the district, over 20 hired guns lay in wait. But they were too slow. Jasper approached with sixguns blazing' when they were empty he used his shotgun and rifle ridding the town of the back-shooters. With the threat gone Jasper was last seen entering one of the parlors to conduct some official business.

Jasper was 6th overall in our make shift, revised, last stage, not to bad. First was Sand Dab Sam followed by Cyrus Sidewinder, Dice, Rough 'N' Rob, and Ready and Able Annie.

DICE SPLINTER SHOOT'S UP SALOON FOR SERVING BAD MARGARITA!!

Stage three and four

After a hard day of running at the land office Dice strolled into Rob's Gun & Liquor Parlor and ordered his usual - a top flight Margarita. Jasper, the bartender, with a new set of eye-glasses, didn't realize Dice's proclivity to violence if given a poor quality Margarita.

Mixing a less than "top-flight" drink, Dice took one sip and immediately spit out the miserable excuse for a drink. Luckily most of the patrons were regular's and were familiar with Dice's behavior when given a bad Margarita - so in unison 40 patrons "hit the floor", as Dice's shotgun, rifle, and hog-legs tore holes in the walls and ceiling of Rob's place. Marshal Jasper, after tasting the Margarita in question, did not press charges, and fined the Saloon $25.00 for serving an inferior Margarita.
