The annual "Free Whiskey Sunday" is normally one of the biggest events at the town of Chabot. Normally hundreds of conwoys, gunslingers, and gamblers showed up to par-take in the free wheeling drinking. This particular Sunday there was a slight chance of inclement weather but the town fathers were not worried, who could resist "Free Whiskey Sunday"?

As the sun broke over the horizon there were dark clouds surrounding the town but the cowboys began to ride into town, but the number of riders slowed down to a trickle - what was problem? There was no rain, perfect tempature, and open Saloons - how could this be?

In other counties there was some light sprinkles and it appeared that numerous "tough" cowboys decided to stay in their warm bunks. So rugged, tough, hardy, strong, rowdy, cowboy were afraid of a little rain - oh I might get wet - my or my - have they become girlie cowboys?

Well you cares. It was a very good day - NO RAIN. Fourteen REAL cowboy Councilman Billy (no Fat not Bruno) showed up shoot the new SASS regulation targets. Set no more than 5 feet for pistol and 10 feet for rifle, everybody cleaned the match. So the cowboys that did not come were not going to be upset the REAL shooters added there own misses to their scores - that's the cowboy way!!

Back on top was Sand Dab Sam followed by Salt Pork Steve, Tully Mars, Vaca Villian and El Passo Gasso.

TULLY MARS CATCHES WHISKY THIEVES!!!

Stage one

Running the sign and buggy painting store next to the Shanghai Kid's Billiard Parlor and Gambling Emporium, is usually a pretty quiet endeavor. But last Sunday a couple of would-be thieves attempted to break into the Saloon and make off with the supply of whisky. Tully Mars, with his sixguns, rifle and shotgun, approached the thieves and ordered them to, "cease and desist", and when the robbers drew-down, Tully Mars let'em have-it. With shotgun, pistols, rifle and shotgun (again) Tully saved the day.

In under a minute Tully Mars was first followed by Salt Pork, and Sand Dab Sam.

ROUGH & READY ROB PUTS ON INCREDIBLE DISPLAY OF SHOOTING!!

Stage two

Fifteen ruffians stood in the way of Rob and the much deserved drink waiting for him at Flaco's Saloon. Nothing was going to sway him from his path. Armed with only a shotgun and two trusty Colts, Rob politely asked the fifteen to step aside. Then one of the banditos went for his gun and Rob let loose with shotgun, then both sixguns. In less than a one sixth of a minute all of the bandits were suffering from lead poisoning.

EL PASSO GASSO GIVES UP GUNFIGHTING TO FORM MARIACHI BAND!!!

Stage three

Known through the west for his infamous gang, the El Passo Gasso Gang, (after a robbery he would carve an "L" in a nearby wall or tree, which for years no one understood because he used a lower case "l" which looked like a one, only when they went to the upper case "L" did the name of the gang make sense).

Never being as successful as other gangs, and being musically inclined the El Passo discovered that he could make money in a Mariachi band (which he did between jobs) than at actually risking his live robbing banks. What does this have to do with the shoot?? Absolutely zero!!

Anyway the stage involved sixguns, and rifle. Tully was first in under 10 seconds, followed by Cyrus Sidewinder and El Passo Gasso.

SHANGHAI KID CLEANS UP THE TOWN!! Stage four

After a long night in the Saloon playing Texas Hold-em the Kid was ahead by a pretty large margin. As the last hand was being dealt the table limits were removed so this was all or nothing. Not trusting the players at the table the Kid kept a close eye on the deal. After the betting rounds the Kid suspected that seconds were being dealt and when the betting between two of the players started to get high. With the betting done the Kid showed to full boat, kings over, and appeared to be beat by another boat with aces over. The only problem was with all the hands showing there was too many aces. Drawing his "45" the Kid declared his hand was the "power". Some confederates of the crooked gamblers started to come to the rescue of their covered friends so the Kid let 'm have it - with pistol, rifle and shotgun. When the smoke cleared the Kid was indeed the winner.

First was Sand Dab folloed by Salt Pork and Tully Mars.

NILES SAVES DISTILLERY!! Stage five

Being a part owner in the local beer distillery was not a conflict of interest according to Niles, even though all the other distilleries around town have been mysteriously burned to the ground or blown up (with no suspects yet). But when a gang of no-good attempted to rob Percy's Finest Brewing Company, (owned by Mortimer Pestle, Vaca Villan and Bruno Billy) the perpetrators were cornered within hours of the robbery, and dead eye Niles, dispensed some true western sixgun justice.

Niles finished seventh in this stage, using pistol, rifle and shotgun. Vaca Villian was 1st followed by Salt Pork, Sand Dab, and Tully Mars.
