SCANDLE ROCKS LITTLE TOWN OF CHABOT – TOWN FATHERS IN ON WHISKEY SCAM!!!!

SALT PORK SHOOTSO SO FAST TIME RUNS BACKWARDS!!!

FAT BILLY FILES COMPLAINT WITH TERRITORIAL GOVENORS – CHABOT TARGETS TOO SMALL!!

It was revealed to this newspaper that the city council has been listening in on the private conversations of the Saloon House International Trade Union meetings (S.H.I.T.U.). These meetings were held to discuss the price of whiskey, gaming odds, and the cost of, well, the entertainment. By learning what was discussed at the meeting would allow the town council to profit on the whiskey shipments coming into town.

This was shocking information and the business owners were incensed – they wanted a share of the profits. To solve this problem the upstanding business owners sent word for their top gunfighters, including the likes of German Bob, Tully Mars, and Bruno Billy. The town council, not to be outdone got their own gunfighters including Salt Pork Steve, Jasper, and a new gun Dice Roy.

The two gangs of gunfighters faced off at Main and Second Street. Their steely gaze was cold as a blizzard in the Rocky's. The streets were deserted, with blood shed expected by the townsfolk. As their gun hands rested near there shooting irons one could hear a pin drop. As the second hand moved slowly towards the top of the hour German Bob approached Jasper and asked if this dispute could be better handled over a couple of bottles of whiskey and some poker.

Seeing the wisdom of this strategy, and the benefits of not getting shot, Jasper informed his crew and both gangs retired to the Gouge Eye and came to the conclusion that this was none of their business. So the business of the Town Council, and the S.H.I.T.U. organization would go on as before.

Hundreds of shooters showed up to test their metal at the easy huge targets at Chabot. The top shooter was Dice Roy followed by Salt Pork Steve (less than one second separating the two). Third was German Bob followed by Jasper, Tully Mars and Bruno Billy.

JASPER & FAT BILLY SAVE GOLD!!!

Stage one

Entrusted with getting a gold shipment from the Chabot mines to the San Francisco Mint, valued at over $500,000.00, Jasper and Billy, two of Well Fargo's most experienced riders, were moving through the Chabot pass, ready for anything, knowing that the Horatia gang was in the area.

At a bend in the road a fallen tree blocked their progress, and as the stage pulled up, a masked bandit appeared from behind a tree and ordered the two to throw down the box. Jasper refused the order and went for his scattergun, at that moment the bandit pulled the trigger on his hogleg. As the hammer fell there was an ominous click as the bandits watch chain got tangled with the hammer. Realizing the problem the bandit turned and high tailed into the woods, followed by a pound of lead.

Sixguns, shotguns, and rifle. Lotts shooting. German Bob took the stage followed by Dice Roy, Jasper, Fat Billy, and Rowdy Yates.

SALT PORK STEVE PUTS ON INCREDIBLE DISPLAY OF SHOOTING!!

Stage two & three

Twenty -three ruffians stood in the way of Salt Pork Steve and his afternoon Tea (served at Honey's Gambling, Pastry and Tea Emporium) To be a Tea drinking gunfighter in this town requires a quick gun and a steady hand. Armed with his shotgun, two trusty Colts, and Winchester, Salt Pork politely asked the ruffians to step aside. Then one of the evil-doers went for his gun and Salt Pork let loose with shotgun, then both sixguns, more shotgun and finished' m off with his rifle. In less than half a minute all of the bandits were suffering from Tea interruptus.

Our fast and furious SASS type stages. Salt Pork did both stages in 26.05 seconds.

TULLY MARS SAVES WHISKEY DISTILLERY

Stage three

Being the sole owner of the local Whiskey distillery had its advantageous according to Tully Mars, even though he consumed a large percentage of the profits, his was one of the most successful distilleries in the West, supplying most of the saloons past the dead line.

Tully Mars is basically an affable type but when a gang of no-good thieving outlaws (each with Howling Wolf bandanas covering their faces) attempted to rob Tully's distillery, Tully did not hesitate and "drew down" on the perpetrators. In just over one and a half minutes Tully had rid the distillery of the would be thieves.

Tully was 3rd overall. Tops were Dice Roy followed by Salt Pork Steve.

BRUNO BILLY SPOILS CLAIM JUMPING ATTEMPT!!

Stage five

As Billy lay under the night stars, (wide awake since it was midnight) on his 13,900 acre claim, a bunch of claim jumpers swarmed into camp. Pull'n his six shooters seven of the bad guys were quickly sent on their way. For the eighth bad guy Billy spared his life and shot his hat off of his head and made it "dance".

Getting all of the knock downs and the dancing cube Billy took second. First was Salt Pork with a -5.23 seconds (the bonuses do not hurt).

GERMAN BOB'S ADVICE ON LIFE

No doubt SASS is a big deal. When you show up to a match you want to know if you're at a SASS match. There are some ways to find out.

1. You hit the rifle targets with the end of your rifle.

2. You notice that the rifles being used do not have rear sights.
3. The pound of powder you bought three years ago is half full.
4. At the end of the match you go down range to retrieve your bullets – to use them again.
5. You don't have to use the resizing die when you reload.
6. "Short-stroke" takes on an entirely new meaning.
7. .32 is a major caliber.
8. Total time spend shooting 12 stages – 32 seconds.
